Chapter 1 by Story Wars

Everything downstairs had a organized, dull feeling to it. But, upstairs, well upstairs was- nah. Upstairs had the same feel to it.

Except my room. My room was the place to be. The place to party. My room was one of the 4 bedrooms in our house. My mom and dad, obviously, had the biggest master bedroom. I had the second biggest. Yay. My room was double the size of the guest bedroom. I had a twin bed that saved a ton of room, too. Flat screen TV, yadda yadda yadda.

Anyway, back to the important stuff.

Sarah Lopez, or as I like to call her, snobby Sasha- don't ask where I got the name Sasha from Sarah- was the most popular person in the school. Literally. She had a 5 story mansion, ginormous TVs, and best of all, an indoor pool! Like, WHAT? In my neighborhood, you can't find a 3 story house, much less a 5 story house.

And, even worse, she always bragged about her "awesome" stuff.

And I was going to be the one to out-pop her. I was going to be more school-wide famous. I was going to be more popular than her.

That's right.

First, I just had to somehow get from normal lacrosse to varsity lacrosse in a month. Yay! Super
